Function Thursday Will Honor New Members

Mrs. Emil Lorch, President, Heads Receiving Line

The opening reception of the Faculty Women's club will be held at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the ballroom of the Michigan League. This is an annual custom of the club, to welcome the wives or new members of the faculties of the University.

The president of the club, Mrs. Emil Lorch, will be assisted in the receiving line by Mrs. Alexander G. Ruthven, with Mrs. Edward H. Kraus, Mrs. G. Carl Huber, Mrs. Henry M. Bates, Mrs. William W. Bishop, Mrs. J. B. Edmonson, Mrs. Clare E. Griffin, Mrs. Samuel T. Dana, Mrs. Louis A. Hopkins, Mrs. Chalmers J. Lyons, Mrs. Howard Lewis, Dean Alice C. Lloyd, Mrs. Joseph A. Bursley, Mrs. W. D. Henderson, Mrs. Herbert C. Sadler, Mrs. Charles A. Sink, Mrs. Frederick G. Novy and Mrs. Harley A. Finch of the Anthropology department. E. Yntema of the new-comers' group; Mrs. F. H. Aldrich of the art section; and Mrs. Walter V. Marshall, of dances.

October 26, 1934

The tea tables for the opening reception of the Faculty Women's Club were both located on the north side of the ball-room. The silver bowls of the Club were used for yellow and bronze chrysanthemums arranged by Mrs. Stiers of the University Flower Shop at $2.00 each. Mrs. Stiers also furnished 4 brown candles for the silver candle sticks. Lovely effect. The refreshments furnished by the League were tea and coffee with assorted cakes beautifully decorated. They furnished gratis dishes of candied grapefruit peel, colored green and yellow.

Ordered 350 teas and 407 people were served.

Brinkman's Recital Brilliant Event

The piano recital by Prof. Joseph Brinkman of the school of music faculty, given before the members of the Faculty Women's club and their guests Wednesday afternoon at Lydia Mendelssohn theater, was a brilliant and notable event, attended by close to 300.

The musicianship of Prof. Brinkman made its success beyond question, and his selection of his numbers was a happy one, stressing the classical type in which he excels and concluding his program with the four movements of the difficult "Hammerklavier" sonata of Beethoven, which he introduced to the local audiences some years ago, a composition not often heard because of its difficulty and length.

Following the recital, tea was served in the concourse and in the Ethel Fountain Hussey lounge, at two long tables laid with lace covers and centered with silver bowls of snapdragons in shades of pink and peach with matching tapers in silver holders lighting the rooms.

Mrs. Emil Lorch, president of the club, was among those who poured, also Mrs. Alexander G. Ruthven, Mrs. Charles A. Sink, and Mrs. Peter Okkelberg. Mrs. Walter F. Hunt and Mrs. Ira M. Smith were in charge of the tea, assisted by a large committee.

The club will hold its formal reception and dance at 9 o'clock Wednesday night, Dec. 12, in the ballroom of the Michigan League, as the next event on its program.

In addition Harold B. Allen of the English department will speak "The Standard of Usage in Teaching Freshmen"

November 28, 1934

The November meeting of the F.W.C. was guest day. 200 people were served tea, coffee and tea cakes.

Snapdragons in Club's two silver bowls from University Flower Shop were $4.00. Candles to match the pale yellow shades were from League at 25¢ a pair, used in Club's silver candlesticks.

December 12, 1934

This meeting of The F. W. C. was a formal reception and dance for the husbands.

Only punch was served. This was served from a large table on the north side of the ballroom and from the doorway of the main dining room which opens into the hall leading to the ballroom. The dining room service was used very little and the one placed for serving punch was quite enough. Began serving about 9:30.

Ordered

16 gals. punch only.

No flowers or other expense for refreshments.

Six Sections Unite To Provide Much Entertainment

Skits, Fantasies Included in Division Day Offering

Anticipated with much interest, but remaining a mystery until the day of its production each year, the annual division day program of the Faculty Woman's club brings together the entire membership of six of the sections of the club in an offering that marks achievement for the year. The program for this year was given Thursday afternoon in Lydia Mendelssohn theater, and was witnessed by close to 300 members and guests of the club.

The numbers on the program were announced by the general chairman, Mrs. Earl S. Wolaver. The Book-Shelf and Stage section, of which Mrs. C. L. Clark is chairman, opened the program with a clever original delineation of "the executive board meeting of the Faculty Women's club, held at 10 o'clock one October morning at the Michigan League." Mrs. O. S. Duffendack and Mrs. R.K. Brown arranged the comedy and directed the rehearsals. Mrs. Duffendack leaving for Europe, however, earlier in the week, and Mrs. Brown directing the performance Thursday. The entire membership of the section, of 16, took part.

Fantasy Offered

A charming little one-act fantasy, "His Sainted Grandmother," by Lord Dunsaney, was the offering of the Bibliophiles section, of which Mrs. F. H. Finch is chairman. Mrs. W. J. Emmons enacted the quaint portrait of the grandmother, which comes to life to talk ven.

April 25, 1935

The annual meeting and luncheon of the Faculty Women's Club was held in the ballroom of the Michigan League at 1:00, Thursday, April 25. The luncheon was ordered served at 1:20 in order to accommodate late-comers, but should have been served earlier as almost everyone was waiting rather impatiently.

The tables were arranged as last year with place cards for the speakers table only. Officers and chairmen of committees with honor guests and the president-elect were seated at this table (Guests: Ruthven, Cram, Jordan). Also the chairman of nominating committee. Tables were decorated with bowls of Loxeythia donated by various club members - and was most effective.

Two bowls on each long table and three on ^{speakers} table-larger.
~~Many silver bowls of silver~~ ^{flowers} collected and arranged by members of refreshment committee.
Treasurer and her committee sold tickets at the door but reservations were made thru
Mrs. Clark of the League.

Luncheon .55¢, including tax.
Menu on record at Mrs. Clark's office. Very satisfactory from all reports that came to the refreshment committee.

Tentatively ordered 175 luncheons. Actual number of reservations only were to be paid for, thus eliminating responsibility of Faculty Women's Club for any guarantee. Number present about 100. Exact number on record in Mrs. Clark's files.

No expense for flowers.

ing type. It is contrasted sharply, in the play of that name, with the serious character of her brother. The author of "The Contrast", a Vermont lawyer visiting in New York City in 1787, was inspired by the Sheridan play which he saw, to depict a somewhat heroic figure which he considered expressive of the noble democracy of this country.

In her scene from "The Mouse Trap" of the '90's by William Dean Howells. Miss Loomis presented the "New Woman" of the time with the essentially feminine traits emphasized cleverly. In the final number, considered the finest bit of the program, Miss Loomis enacted the bewildered mother of this decade, whose son was killed in the World war. It was a scene from an unproduced play by Noel Coward, and expressed the tragedy and the chaos faced by women of the age.

The pleasing singing of Miss Maurits was accorded much applause, her selections ranging from Mozart and Handel to the moderns. Particularly satisfactory were the lighter moods expressed in the closing group of Manning's "A Winter Afternoon," Wolfe's "God's World" by Millay, and "Les Silhouettes" by Carpenter. The more pretentious "Garden Scene" from Gounod's "Faust" was effectively done and showed the variety of the singer's talent.

I'll welcome any suggestions for ladies to pour or assist other than

1. Mrs. Benj. Bailey

(other long time members of Painting section:

2. Mrs. Harlan Koch
3. Mrs. Roy Helmer
Monroe Street.
4. Mrs. Harold Lorr
5. Mrs. Joe Lee Lorr
6. Mrs. Axel Churchill
7. Mrs. Fred Alditch,
8. Myself.
9. Mrs. Wilder (Math)

I imagine these ladies would prefer to spend most of the time in the galleries. There are others in the Painting section
