

International Institute Language Fellowship (IILF)

Chinese ~ Japanese ~ Korean ~ Tibetan

Application Deadline: FEBRUARY 1, 2009

UM Center for Chinese Studies, Center for Japanese Studies and the Center for Korean Studies are pleased to announce that a limited number of graduate fellowships for the study of Chinese, Japanese, Korean and Tibetan will be available for 2009-10. These awards, called International Institute Language Fellowships (IILF), will mirror Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowship awards in other languages in terms of their funding structure and application requirements.

Chinese and Tibetan:

This fellowship cannot be used for first year Chinese.
Incoming students must be nominated by their departments.
Continuing students can find application information here:
<http://www.ii.umich.edu/ccs/academics/fundingopportunities>
The program contact is Jen Zhu (zzhu@umich.edu; 936-1603).

Japanese:

This fellowship cannot be used for first year Japanese.
Incoming students must be nominated by a CJS Faculty Member.
Continuing students can access an application here:
<http://www.ii.umich.edu/cjs/academics/fundstudents/>
The program contact is Ann Takata (cjsadmissions@umich.edu; 647-3766).

Korean:

Students interested in the study of Korean, should contact:
Jiyoung Lee (jiyoungl@umich.edu : 764-1825).