

CONTENTS

Preface ix
Acknowledgments xv

I

THE CLAIMS OF THE WORLD ON THE SELF, THE SELF ON THE WORLD

One Plato's CRITO: The Authority of Law and Philosophy 3

II

CREATING A PUBLIC WORLD

Two Shakespeare's RICHARD II: Imagining the Modern World 47

Three Hooker's Preface to the LAWES OF ECCLESIASTICAL POLITIE:
Constituting Authority in Argument 82

Four Hale's "Considerations Touching the Amendment or Alteration of Lawes": Determining the Authority of the Past 124

Five PLANNED PARENTHOOD V. CASEY: Legal Judgment
as an Ethical and Cultural Art 153

III

THE AUTHORITY OF THE SELF

Six Austen's MANSFIELD PARK: Making the Self Out of—and Against—the Culture 187

Seven Dickinson's Poetry: Transforming the Authority of Language 224

IV

RECONSTITUTING SELF AND WORLD:
THE CREATION OF AUTHORITY AS AN ACT OF HOPE

Eight Mandela's Speech from the Dock and Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address: Giving Meaning to Life in an Unjust World 275

Afterword 303
Additional Notes 309
Index 313