

CEEIO License Agreement

Welcome to the Chinese Environmentally Extended Input-Output (CEEIO) database. The CEEIO database is free for non-commercial uses with appropriate citations (<http://www.ceeio.com>) or co-authorship. Commercial uses of the CEEIO database (including any derivative work or website) may not be allowed without permission. All commercial uses require a data license and must prominently give the CEEIO citation.

For any questions regarding the CEEIO database, including data license for commercial uses, please contact us at mingxu@umich.edu.
