WKWIT

Its been two years...

two years since

She told me she was taking a walk

And never came back

If I knew that was the last time I would see her

I would have told her

I would have told her even though she would not have believed me....

I know
she would not have

W. H. Auden

Because I wouldn't have believed
it myself

Who would have ever guessed

Fall
registration
would bring
me
to this point.

Being used to this point

There is nothing
left
for me
here

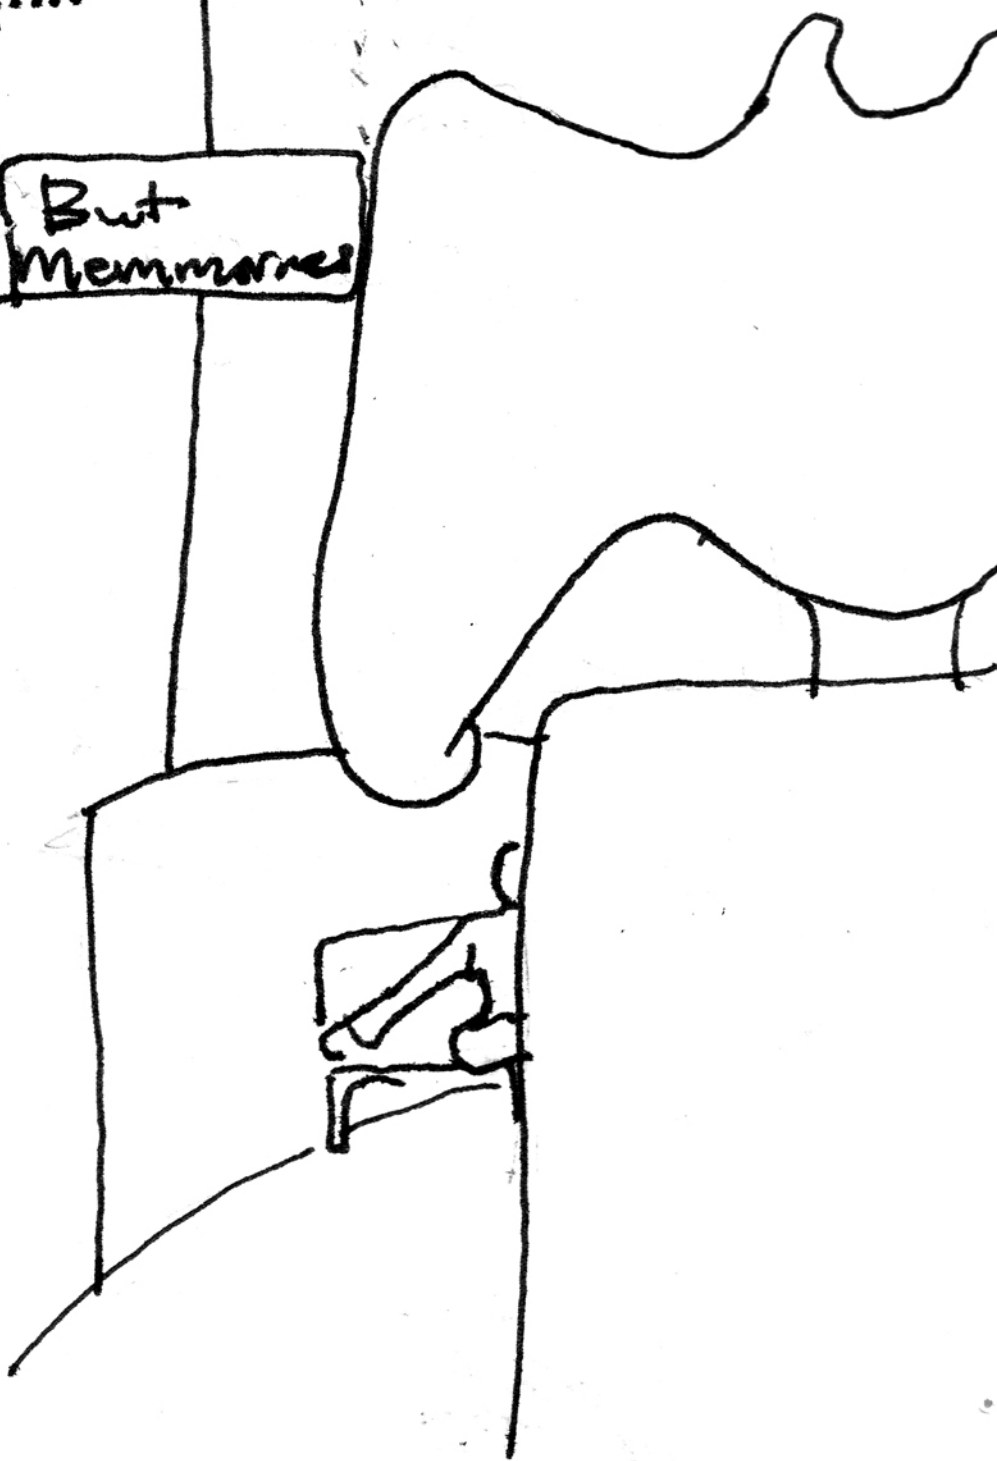

Nothing

But Memories

Places I want to target

missed but Never forgotten

...

I want to forget

A hand-drawn diagram on a white page. At the top left, there are three dots. Below them is a rectangular box with a double-line border containing the text "I want to forget". The word "I" is underlined. A line extends from the bottom of this box to a larger, empty rectangular box. To the right of this box is another empty rectangular box. Below these are several more empty rectangular boxes of various sizes and orientations, some connected by lines, forming a network of shapes. The drawing is done in black ink.
